King and Spalding - Paris, France Jan. 2016 – Jan. 2018
Associate in Real Estate Department

- DRAFT COMMERCIAL LEASE: I drafted commercial leases for different clients (generally landlords). Throughout the proceeding of signing the lease, I counseled clients with respect to the French regulation, new reforms regarding commercial lease. I attended negotiation meetings with clients in presence of the opposite party (tenants). Thereafter, I usually drafted. Generally, from opening a new file and the signing of the lease, it takes between 1-4 months, depending on the stakes. During this period, I usually attended negotiation meetings with the client and the opposite party (tenant), drafted provisions of commercial leases and more broadly followed up any relevant discussions or changes arising from the parties.
- In addition, I used to draft legal memoranda on various real estate issues. For example, a client would ask a specific question and I was required to answer his question by drafting a memorandum.
- DRAFT PURCHASE AND SALE AGREEMENT: As a part of the transactional activity of King & Spalding, I worked on three deals (on the vendor's side) including share purchase agreements. In the course of these deals, I participated under supervision of the partner and the senior counsel, in the drafting, among others, share purchase agreements, letter of resignations from executives, movements orders. I also drafted minutes of the ordinary and extraordinary shareholders meeting and escrow agreements.
- DUE DILIGENCE REVIEW: Within the framework of different transactions, I also carried out, under supervision of the partner and senior counsel, audits of companies. During these audits, I generally reviewed documents with respect to the structure of the company with which our clients were dealing or among others, the existence of any disputes and disagreements with third parties. In the course of these audits, I drafted afterwards audit reports for our clients reflecting possible risks and future issues.

- DRAFT AND NEGOTIATE A WIDE VARIETY OF AGREEMENTS AND CONTRACTS
- DRAFT CORPORATE GOVERNANCE DOCUMENTS
